Dr Karl Slaikeu, an internationally recognized psychologist, mediator and author, is a graduate of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (B.A.), Princeton Theological Seminary (M.Div.), and the State University of New York at Buffalo (M.A., Ph.D.). The author of numerous books and professional articles, Karl has decades of experience in mediating family, organizational and faith based disputes.

He is the co-founder of Preferred Path Conflict Resolution, a non-denominational initiative that supports collaborative conflict resolution in Christian communities by providing tools and training that integrate biblical principles with negotiation and mediation practice (www.preferredpathconflictresolution.com).

In 2009-10 Karl served as a Sr. Social Scientist with the US Army in Afghanistan, where he interviewed villagers and helped Coalition Forces adjust stability operations to address needs of the local population.

Formerly he held a tenured faculty position in the Department of Psychology at the University of South Carolina, and taught in the Department of Psychology at the University of Texas at Austin.

All pastors and church leaders will be blessed by attending this Conference!
