

COULD YOUR CHURCH SURVIVE AN IRS AUDIT?

Could your church or non-profit organization survive an IRS audit? Many clergy and churches are asking this question today because financial accountability in churches and religious organizations is such an important and timely topic. Many clergy are finding themselves facing IRS audits. It is imperative that those responsible for your organization's finances have the information they need to protect your exempt status and your right to accept donations.

Our staff specializes in church and non-profit organizations, with over fifty years of knowledge and experience in this specialized area.

Summit Tax and Accounting, LLC is dedicated to serving our clients by providing the essential accounting tools your church or organization needs.

If you are interested in hosting a
Church Accountability
by the Book
seminar, please contact
Linda Wolfe at linda.wolfe@sta-cpas.com
or call 217-877-6766

Summit Tax & Accounting, LLC
3040 North University Ave.
Decatur IL 62526

CHURCH ACCOUNTABILITY BY THE BOOK

CHURCH & CLERGY SPECIALIST

Summit Tax & Accounting LLC
Certified Public Accountants
3040 N. University Ave.
Decatur, IL 62526
Phone; 217-877-6766
Fax 217-875-4647
Email: linda.wolfe@sta-cpas.com
www.sta-cpas.com

What They're Saying About Summit Seminars

Wonderful, informative, clear, extremely helpful. . . . God ordained. I praise God for his provision for our needs through your ministry.

Jacqueline Sorrel-Richardson
Christian Abundant Life Church

This was an exceptional overview of church financial topics providing in-depth information where important, as well as high level practical guidance on an amazing number of topics in such a short time period.

P. Kip Hayden, Treasurer
Centennial Christian Church

Very informative, thorough and professional. Very needed, no matter your church situation.

Anonymous

Presenter was very knowledgeable about subject matter. Definitely worth attending.

Roberta Owens, Account Manager
Centreville Church of Christ

Necessary for every church, pastor and treasurer.

Scott Minix, Pastor
First Baptist Church

Helpful in what we needed to do for taxes and controls. Documents were helpful.

Anonymous

This was very informative, friendly and confirming. Love the non-condemning approach.

Eddie Rivera, Pastor
Christ Redeemer Christian Church

Who Should Attend?

If you are in a position of financial responsibility for your church or a non-profit organization, you cannot afford to miss the "Church Accountability by the Book" seminar.

The seminar is designed for clergy, treasurers, church board members, non-profit organizations and anyone else responsible for financial decisions affecting the church, non-profit organizations, and clergy benefits.

The seminar addresses a variety of financial accountability issues that frequently affect church and non-profit officials. Tax laws are constantly changing and there is always a need for continued education.

Seminar Overview

The following topics will be covered:

- Income
- Housing & Parsonage Allowance
- Professional Expenses
- Retirements
- Payroll Reports
- Policies and Procedures
- Political Activities
- Contributions
- Protecting Your 501(c)(3) status
- Embezzlement
- Internal Controls

Check out our other seminars and resources at www.sta-cpas.com!

Summit Offers A Myriad of Services

The professional team at Summit Tax & Accounting, LLC strives to reduce the stress and frustration that are all too common in today's busy world. We are experts in managing church finances and business decisions, and we are proud to offer support services to churches, non-profits and clergy in the following areas:

- Accounting and Bookkeeping
- Applying for Exempt Status
- Seminars
- Webinars
- Newsletters
- Power Church Training & Assistance
- Quick Books Training & Assistance
- Church Reviews
- Payroll / Payroll Taxes
- Clergy & Minister Taxes
- Non-Profit Tax Returns
- Setting up Pay Packages
- Assisting With IRS Issues
- Fraud Investigation & Prevention

"Worth's Income Tax Guide for Ministers"
Written by B.J. Worth included with registration fee.