A Word From Paul Gibson, ABCGRR Executive Minister

BE THE PRESENCE

I was listening to someone talking the other day about what was the most important thing. The person suggested that it was not to tell people about Jesus, but it was to “be the presence” of Jesus. We live in a skeptical world where many people are like those from Missouri, they want us to show them.

Let the world see what it means to be a Christian both as an individual and as a group of people, be that your church or our region. To help you with this I would encourage you to read a book by David Fitch, from Northern Seminary, “Faithful Presence”. David is going to be with us at our Minister’s Conference in the Fall and at our annual gathering. I found his book to be very helpful.

Here are a few thoughts as I have been listening to God these past few weeks.

1. Make America great or make Jesus great in your life? I would suggest you concentrate on the second one. The difference between (continued on p. 2)

these two is that, in making Jesus great in your life you are thinking about others, because that is what He did. Make Jesus great in your life, and He will take care of the rest

2. CRI. Church Revitalization Initiative. What is it and how can we be involved? Those questions will be answered in the next two newsletters.
3. Family Reunion. That's what I think about when I think of our annual meeting in Bloomington this fall. I am asking every pastor and church to prayerfully consider joining us for a great gathering. Are you going?
4. Missions. When I think of it, we don't have 220 churches in our region, we have 220 missions. Each church is a mission outpost for Jesus. Remember, you don't "go" to church, you "are" the church!
5. Sunday night service or mid-week service? My thinking has changed on these two things. I think it would be good to be involved in both, but with a twist. I think Sunday night would be a good time to serve God as you serve your family. Sunday night could be a service night to family, to be together and encourage each other. Mid-week service could be sometime during the week where you and yours take 2-3 hours to be involved in service to friends and neighbors. Once again, it is not something you go to, but something you do. Food for thought.

I pray that each one of us will be able to continue the Christmas celebration by being the presence of Jesus to those around us.

And...be rightly related to God and find your joy there, and out of you will flow rivers of living water. Be a vessel that God can pour His love through.

LET IT FLOW

Paul

Face to Face: A Help for Churches and Pastors Searching For God's Call

Face to Face is an opportunity for Search Committees of churches seeking full time pastors (not bivocational) to interview pastors and seminarians seeking to discern God's next step. Each participating church and each pastor will be able to participate in several interviews during the two day event. Look for information in the next few months about this opportunity on the GRR website.

Church News

Rev. Jim Jenkel became the pastor of First Baptist Church of Benton, Illinois, effective October 1. As a bi-vocational pastor, he shepherds the flock of FBC and is also an LPN/patient care technician for a local dialysis company.

Jenkel was ordained in 2007 and was the pastor of First Baptist Church of Freeburg for 11 years. He and his wife, Fran, have been married 44 years. "Fran and I are both excited about being here in Benton," says Jenkel. "I look forward to serving the congregation of First Baptist as we grow and learn from one another."

First Baptist Church of Pontiac, IL has called Doyle James (Jay) Hurd Jr. to become part-time Associate Pastor effective January 7, 2018. Jay will have primary responsibility for youth, music, and worship. During worship on January 7 Jay will be licensed to preach which allows him to perform pastoral duties within the local church.

Jay has been in the Ministry of working with people for 30 years. He is married to Lisa and has 5 children. Music has always been a big part of his life and Jay especially enjoys worship and praise through song.
